EXCAVATING PARTY FINDS MYSTERY BONE IN MOUND

Students and Townspeople Unite In Hunting for Relics

What was thought to be a bone from the arm of a child was excavated from the mounds near Tangent recently says the O. A. C. news. More than 50 students and townspeople under the direction of J. B. Horner, professor of history, left the mines building on the annual summer excursion to the prehistoric mounds.

The first stop was at the Hill museum in Albany. Professor Horner pointed out interesting stones and flat-headed prehistoric skulls which had been taken from the mounds. A hurried inspection of many more relics in the Crawford museum was made.

The next stop was for picnic lunch and a social half-hour under walnut trees. Two shovels were procured and the party proceeded to the Blevins mounds.

Skulls Declared Ancient
Professor Horner explained the customs and worship of the ancient people and the probable age of the mounds. Then the shovels were industriously piled by the men of the party. Several bits of bone, charcoal, and ashes were unearthed. The party returned to Corvallis at 2:30.

OREGON JERSEYS WIN MAJORITY OF AWARDS

Oregon Cows Five of Ten Highest Scores in American Jersey Contest
—Make Oregon Premier
Jersey State

In a recently compiled report of the medal awards for 1920 issued by the American Jersey Cattle Club, seventy one Jersey cows completed records for the year with a production of over 700 pounds of butterfat within the year on authenticated test. Of the ten highest records made in the year five were made by Oregon cows with an average production of 596.28 lbs. of fat.

Heading the list of breeders of medal winners is J. M. Dickson & Son of Seedd with seven to their credit, followed by G. G. Hewitt of Independence with four, Ed Cary of Carlson with three and O. Pickard and E. J. Farnham of Marion with two. In the list of series represented by medal winning daughters, Valentine's Ashburn Baronet, the Dickson herd sire, ranks first, credited with five Rinda Lad of S. B., the Hewitt bull, second with four Poppy St. Mames, with two medal winners, is tied for third place with an eastern bull and St. Mawes of Ashburn, also a Dickson sire, is one of four in fourth place with one gold and one silver medal daughters. Golden Glow's Chief ranks fifth with one gold and one silver medal to his credit. Thus an Oregon bull appears in the first five places in the list of producing sires for 1920.

Ten cows by reason of superior performance, won more than one medal each and of these seven were Oregon Jerseys. Nineteen states are represented in the awards made. Oregon cows with only 1914 registered, representing only 4 1-3% of the Jerseys recorded, within the year, won 18 gold, 3 silver and 1 bronze or 31% of all the awards made. Ohio ranked second with 8 gold and 1 bronze; Maine, third with 7 gold and 2 bronze; Massachusetts, fourth with 5 gold and 1 silver and Washington fifth with five gold medals.

This remarkable record of performance places Oregon in the first rank as premier Jersey state of the Union and should act as a stimulus to still greater effort to maintain that enviable position.

BOYS AND GIRLS ENJOY LIVELY CAMPUS LIFE

Junior Summer Session Is Pronounced Unqualified Success

Boys and girls at junior summer session after two weeks of strenuous class work, supervised play social events of various kinds, were still "chockful" of "pop". Within a few days all the 225 delegates and prize winners were well acquainted. Many have expressed the belief that contact with so many persons from different parts of the state has been nearly as beneficial to them as the class work.

Twenty-seven of the club members had their expenses paid for having won first prizes. Others were sent as delegates by their clubs, and some paid their own way, just for the courses they could get.

Girls Liked Stock Judging
Fine points of the game in stock judging were taught at the stock pavilions by means of lectures, individual instruction and competitive judging contests. A full week of judging of nearly all kinds of pure bred animals brought out the fact that many of the boys and girls were competent judges. Girls did as well and in many cases better, than the boys. Intensive work was given in many other subjects.

Large Groups Represented
Several large delegations from different counties which came in groups under the county club leaders developed real "county spirit" through athletic and other contests. The Klamath county delegation of 29 members led by Frank Sexton, was the largest of the groups. Other large delegations came from Tillamook, Linn, Multnomah, Douglas and Lane counties.

Many of the groups came in autos which were parked in front of Waldo hall where the club members roomed, boys on the third floor and girls on the second. Students were employed to supervise the club members in work and play leaving county leaders free to work out administrative plans with H. C. Seymour, state club leader.

A free trip to the matinee, swims in the big swimming tank, parties and lectures were provided for entertainment.

DEAD OX FLAT BOY TO MANAGE 1923 BEAVER

G. Allen Brown, Wins Signal Honors
During Year at O. A. C. Named
To Honor Fraternity —
Harold Readon Follows
in Contest

That Malheur county students at O. A. C. are consistent honor winners was again shown by the results of the elections held just before the regular opening term ended when G. Allen Brown of Dead Ox Flat was named manager of the 1923 Beaver, and was also initiated into the Sigma Delta Chi the honorary journalistic fraternity. Young Brown is spending the summer working for G. E. Miller & Company, one of Portland's big bonding houses, who recently purchased the bonds of the Slide Irrigation ditch. Beside winning these honors Brown was returned a winner in the essay contest on the subject, "Why Oregon Made Products Should Be Purchased," he was followed by Harold Readon also of Malheur county. While he lived here the family was known as von Readon, but the prefix was dropped when the von was in disrepute due to the activity of the Kaiser.

These boys who have so signally shown the way to other students at O. A. C. are typical of Malheur ranch products. They know the agricultural game and are equalling the record which William Tuetch of Nyasa made at O. A. C. just a few years ago.

Young Brown is one of the students who returned to O. A. C. after having served in the army in France where he won five service stripes, and one wound stripe as an indication of the kind of service he gave his country.

J. R. Brown of Payette manager of the Payette Creamery, S. M. Brown of this city, and E. L. and J. L. Brown of Dead Ox Flat are brothers of young Brown.

The Columbia River Highway

THE remarkable engineering skill which built the Columbia River Highway opened a veritable paradise for motorists.

This highway follows the Columbia River from the Pacific Ocean—near Astoria—as far east as The Dalles, and leads the tourist through a country of indescribable scenic interest—high waterfalls, huge rocks, picturesque woods—an ideal vacation land for the motorist who appreciates nature at its best.

And on your travels along the Columbia River Highway you can always get "Red Crown," the gasoline of quality—an all-refinery gasoline with a continuous chain of boiling points.

Look for the Red Crown sign before you fill.
